WAITING FOR THE GAME TO START

Yale and Harvard Elevens Ready for Climax of the Gridiron Season-Betting Favors Yale Slightly-Academy and Bulkeley Due for Hot Clash.

Boston, Nov. 18.—Football fever is epidemic in Boston tonight. The game between Harvard and Yale—the climax of the season—which will be played in the Harvard stadium tomorrow, was almost the sole topic of conversation in the hotels, clubs and cafes and on the streets. The crowd of prospective spectators is unprecedented, and the demand for seats has caused fabulous prices to prevail. Seldom in the forty years' history of football have the teams of the two largest American universities met upon such equal terms and with such respect for each other's abilities. Yale was a gight favortle in the betting tonight, but odds have been scaled considerably from the 5 to 3 of two weeks ago, and tonight the price was 10 to 9, the finance of you if you are not. Consult us about inserance.

Thoroughly a College Crowd.

The supply of tickets has been limited to 38,000, the seating capacity of the stadium. The ticket holders, with very few exceptions, are either alumni or members of the families of alumni of the New Haven and Cambridge universities. So strict have been the rules governing the issue of the tickets that the spectators in the stadium tomorrow will be a more thoroughly college crowd than ever before.

The greater portion of these fortunate ticket holders are within easy traveling radius of the stadium tonight.

Game Begins at 2 P. M.

The two teams are storing up energy a few miles farther away in the quiet nooks of Auburndale and Medfield. At noon tomorrow the tide of humanity will surge out to Soldiers field and fill the stadium, tier upon tier; the cheers and songs of the understand the stadium of the understand the stadium. dergraduates will roll around the great amphitheater, and at 2 p. m. both teams, trained to the hour, will dash into the arens, eager for the Reports from the two football camps were, as usual, extremely optimistic. The injured list had been nearly wiped off since the hard games of last Saturday. Captain Fish of Harvard, who received a hard blow in the chest during the game with Dartmouth, was reported in good condition again and an undoubted participant in the opening scrimmage, if not in the entire game.

A typical football crowd surged over into Cambridge today, thronged Harvard square, resplendent with its gayly festooned windows, filled the Harvard yard and talked of nothing but the game. Every student who was suspected of having an extra ticket was pursued by a host of friends, for the demand this year was more than double the supply. Reports from the two football camp

Tickets at $40, $50, $60. Tickets at $40, $50, $60.

Actual sales of tickets at $40, $50 and even $60 each were reported, while an offer of $200 for a choice pair of seats on the Harvard side was refused to-day on the Boston stock exchange.

The greater portion of the spectators who came tonight from far away points remained in Boston. The hotel accommodations were extended to the utmost limits. Rooms is the leading hostelries were unobtainable and seats at dining tables were nearly as scarce.

In the statistics of the players on the rival elevens there is much basis for comparison. Yale has much the heavier line from end to end and tackle to tackle. Yale averages 203 pounds in the whole line and 209 pounds from tackle to tackle. Harvard averages 190 pounds for her whole line and 196 pounds from tackle to tackle. Harvard's players are better balanced on the whole, being of the tall and rangy type. Harvard's first string halfbacks are much heavier than Yale, while Minot is a heavier man than Coy. PICKS HARVARD TO WIN. Dartmouth Captain Favors the Crim -Stronger in Every Way Than

Clark Tobin, captain of the Dartmouth team, is one who thinks Harvard will win. He compares the Crimson team to the Princeton eleven against which he played the previous Saturday, and this is his deduction:

"On the offense, Harvard is very strong. Their attack is quick and well concealed, and the line men charge beautifully, opening up great holes. Fish and Fisher especially work well together. At times the line men showed that they know how to pull and haul.

"On defense, Harvard is strong, the line men charging low and hard, and the secondary defense supports them admirably. The same secondary defense appears to know how to check any attempts at the open game.

"To compare Princeton with Harvard, let me say that Harvard is stronger in every department of the game. Their attack is harder and more straightaway than is Princeton's, and she shows more consistency in her attack than Princeton. Her kicking is far superior to Princeton's; perhaps not so much in height and distance of the kicks as in the protection of the kicker.

"I have no definite statement to

"I have no definite statement "I have no definite statement to make about next Saturday's game with Yale. Judging from Yale's score with Princeton, Eli seems to look a triffe stronger; but scores are had things to go by, and with Crimson meeting the Blue in her own environment and playing the same hard, consistent game they played today, I cannot but feel that victory will be theirs."

PENN LOSES FULLBACK.

Hutchinson Scott Carried Off With Sprained Ankle-Captain Miller

Philadelphia, Nov. 18.—The University of Pennsylvania football team was deprived of its leading candidate for the position of fullback today, when Hutchinson Scott was carried from the field suffering from a sprained ankle which will keep him out of the Cornell game on Thanksgiving day. Captain Miller, who has been on the side lines since the Michigan game, was put in at fullback.

Expect Daly to Start the Game. Auburndale Mass, Nov. 19.—Three hours of the afternoon were given over to an automobile ride for the Yale team. Accompanied by Yale alumni, the players toured Boston and its suburbs, returning to the hotel at 6 p. m. arbs, returning to the hotel at 6 p. m. After dinner an hour was spent in games, indoors, and at 7.30 Coach Mack took the squad out for a brisk walk.

Coach Howard Jones was authority tonight for the statement that Fred Daly would probably start the game in the backfield. Daly arrived here today from New Haven, showing such a great improvement that it is believed he is able to stand the strain for a time. Vaughn may relieve at end, but time. Vaughn may relieve at end, but Logan and Haines will not play.

ACADEMY VS. BULKELEY. N. F. A. Warriors Picked to Keep Slate Clean Against New London.

Academy supporters who have kept Academy supporters who have kept a close eye on Capt. Jack Gallivan's eleven are entertaining no fears of the results when it meets Bulkeley on the Academy campus this afternoon. There is no question but what it will be a stiff fight, but when it comes to a showdown, the Academy will produce something that will shove Bulkeley back a notch or two. in spite of the hopes the New London students have from having played a tle game with the Academy, 12 to 12, earlier in the season. Light practice has been the rule at the Academy this week and every man is in fine shape.

The 1909 Academy eleven is expected to maintain the record made against Bulkeley which has never done bet-

Bulkeley, which has never done better than tie the Academy, and most of the time has had to take a good and proper beating. The following are the scores for the last few years: 1904—Academy 33, Bulkeley Academy 44, Bulkeley team this year.

Academy 89, Bulkeley 0,
